CALEDON PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD UNVEILS NEW STRATEGIC PLAN

Building The Future, a new strategic plan that charts the future course for growth and services at Caledon Public Library was unveiled to Town of Caledon Council at its May 30th, 2017 meeting. Colleen Lipp, CEO/Chief Librarian and Janet Manning, Chair of the Caledon Public Library Board presented the plan that according to Colleen Lipp “confirms the library’s commitment to effectively and efficiently respond to the evolving library services and shifting community needs”.

“In tandem with the library’s Service Facility Review and Master Plan, the new strategic plan is the product of community surveys and engagement of residents, staff and key stakeholders to clarify community needs and confirm municipal priorities” said Janet Manning.

The plan is a thoughtful, proactive and achievable road map for the next four years. With a mission that states Caledon Public Library is a hub for discovery, innovation and inspiration. We nurture connections, collaboration and creativity. It lays out four strategic goals that will be the key priorities for Caledon Public Library over the next several years:

- Strengthen our Facilities
- Invest in People
- Build Relationships
- Encourage Discovery, Innovation & Creativity

This new strategic plan is proof not only of Caledon Public Library’s commitment to providing the best in library service, but of an organization that is strategically and responsibly preparing for the future. “This plan will help the library enhance the vibrant community that is Caledon” said Lipp. “We invite all of Caledon to join us in making it happen.”
