CANADIAN AUTHOR SERIES 2017 @ Caledon Public Library

In 2017, in celebration of Canada's 150th birthday, Caledon Public Library will be putting a strong emphasis on Canadian literature, honouring Canadian authors, readers and writers, and the stories and perspectives that make us unique. We will be creating books lists, book marks and reader's advisory newsletters with Canadian themes; preference for our book club titles will be given to those by Canadians and/or featuring Canadian content; and finally we will be hosting a number of Canadian author and illustrator visits for all ages

Please join us for the following 2 premiere events in our Canadian Author Series 2017:

It's Flag Day! Celebrating Canada's 150th Birthday with Carolyn j. Morris

Wednesday, February 15 | Albion Bolton Branch | 7 - 8:30 pm | All Ages

Celebrate Flag Day and Canada's 150th with CPL and Read Local Caledon children's author, Carolyn j. Morris as she launches her newest book in her Railfence Bunch series, Happy Birthday Canada! It'll be a birthday party complete with cake, balloons and streamers! Make your own Canadian flag or design your own—just two of the fun activities for the whole family to enjoy. Best-selling Canadian Author Ann Walmsley

Thursday, March 9 | 7 pm | Albion Bolton Branch

Caledon Public Library is pleased to welcome Ann Walmsley Ann Walmsley, author of The Prison Book Club, which relates to Ann's experiences as a volunteer prison book club organizer for inmates at the Collins Bay and Beaver Creek Institutions in Ontario. The Prison Book Club recently won the prestigious 2016 Edna Staebler Award for Creative Nonfiction, and provides a fascinating glimpse into the lives of incarcerated men, as well as the transformative and connective power of literature. Please join us for an evening with Ann.
