NEW MUSICAL INSTRUMENT COLLECTION AT CALEDON PUBLIC LIBRARY
LAUNCHES DURING CULTURE DAY CELEBRATION ON SEPTEMBER 28TH.

Bolton, ON - As part of Culture Days, the 10th anniversary of Canada's national celebration of arts and culture, Caledon Public Library (CPL) invites everyone to the Albion Bolton branch on Saturday, September 28, 10 am – 2pm for a variety of free hands-on activities and the launch of CPL's new musical instrument collection!

All ages will enjoy Culture Days at CPL as Caledon's creative community displays their talents and offers the public a wide range of cultural activities. Enjoy interactive children's art activities and the Artsploration Bus; art exhibits; Battle of the Brushes for adults and kids; dance demos; Read Local Caledon authors; art demonstrations (pottery, looming); henna stations; Cricut and 3D printer demos; and of course, lots of music.

At 1 pm, the new musical instrument collection will be launched with a formal presentation, music performance by Caledon East local business, InKey Music School, and refreshments.

"Thanks to the generosity of Brampton and Caledon Community Foundation and the Friends of Caledon Public Library, we at CPL are pleased to add this to our already vast array of resources offered to the public", says Colleen Lipp, CEO and Chief Librarian of Caledon Public Library. "Now anyone with a Caledon Public Library (CPL) card will be able to borrow a guitar or ukulele. This new initiative is truly music to our ears!"

Six Yamaha F325D Dreadnought Acoustic Guitars, six Beaver Creek Mahogany Concert Ukuleles and two Beaver Creek 601 three-quarter size acoustic guitars will be housed at the Albion Bolton branch where they can be placed on hold and be delivered to another branch for pick-up.
