WRITING OPPORTUNITIES FOR ADULTS AND TEENS AT CALEDON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Bolton, ON – Has self-isolation started your mind wandering? Is your vivid imagination looking for an escape? Why not put pen to paper so to speak and enter Caledon Public Library's CPL creative writing contests? CPL is launching two writing opportunities for poets and story writers.

Flash Fiction Writing Contest for Adults and Teens - closes April 15, 2020
Adult Poetry Contest- closes April 31, 2020

"There is so much creativity in Caledon, these contests help to keep the energy flowing" says Marty Harrison, President of Friends of Caledon Public Library. "The pause in our routines is a wonderful chance to capture some of this creativity".

Friends of Caledon Public Library proudly support this initiative and will provide prize money for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place of $100, $75 and $50 respectively for all contests.

Keep the creativity flowing and enter your short story in the Flash Fiction Writing Contest for Adults and Teens contest accepting submissions until April 15. Details at <https://cpl.social/ff>.

Unleash your spirit and enter the Adult Poetry contest accepting submissions online until April 31. Find more details at <http://cpl/social/adultpoetry>.

Stay healthy and strong Caledon!
