CPL'S BOOK TO PHOTO CONTEST

Caledon, ON – Do you have a love of books and photography? If you do, Caledon Public Library's Book to Photo Contest offers you the chance to blend both creative channels and discover how they interact in fascinating and unexpected ways!

Beginning on January 11 and open till the end of February, aspiring photographers aged 6 and older can enter the contest. All you need is a book with a great story/message and capture the story in a photo. Remember to include a copy of the book in the shot! Each submission to include a description of how the photo tells the story/message of the book. (140 words max)

Contest age categories are children: 6 to 12; teen: 13 to 17; adult: 18+. Winners to receive cash prizes of $100 for 1st place, $75 for 2nd place and $50 for 3rd place in each category.

We are honoured to have Friends of Caledon Public Library (FOCPL), the fundraising arm of Caledon Public Library, sponsor this creative program. "The Friends enthusiastically support this contest as we've done for many years," says FOCPL President Marty Harrison. "This contest is a great testament to the talent and creativity in our Caledon community."

Get creative and capture your favourite book in a photo and enter CPL's Book to Photo Contest. Entries to be judged on concept originality. Remember to visit the library's catalogue if you don't have a copy at home!

Winners will be announced in March 2021 and their photos will be published on the Caledon Public Library website.
