CALEDON PUBLIC LIBRARY RE-LAUNCHES CREATIVE PLATFORM FOR EXPRESSION OF ARTISTS, AUTHORS AND MUSICIANS

Caledon, ON – Are you a local artist, author or musician looking for a platform to showcase your talents? Artful Caledon is where you need to be.

Caledon Public Library (CPL) invites local creatives of all ages to promote their works in-person and virtually. There is something for everyone with the re-launch of this exciting initiative. From innovative programming spaces for creation and display to a virtual platform for local artists, authors and musicians to share their works.

“Art and culture enhances the quality of life in our community and as confirmed in our recently adopted strategic plan, we consider it our priority to celebrate culture and inclusion; supporting Caledon’s creative talent and cultural economy by showcasing local authors, artists, performers, and makers” says Colleen Lipp, CEO/Chief Librarian.

Enjoy Art Exhibits on display until December 31 2021

Alton - An art collective of Gail Davidson, Lois Howick, Stephanie Schilling, Adriana Zettel, Nathalie Zonta
Caledon East - Grade 10 students, R.F. Hall High School
Inglewood - Darlene Hartung
Caledon Village - Kayla Jackson
Margaret Dunn Valleywood & Southfields Village - Fatima Learn

Join our virtual platform and display your works and view the work of other local artists and authors.

Stay tuned for the music scene joining Artful Caledon early 2022.

CPL believes that creativity, like information, should be free to everyone who steps into a library and this exciting new initiative is designed to foster the development of art and culture in the Caledon community. We invite all local artists, authors and musicians to celebrate with us. For more details please visit www.artfulcaledon.ca
