ELVIS TRIBUTE CONCERT AND FUNDRAISER FOR CALEDON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Caledon, ON – There will be a Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On June 2 at the Albion Bolton Fairgrounds with an Elvis Tribute concert and fundraiser for Caledon Public Library (CPL).

Sing along to Johnny B. Goode, Blue Suede Shoes, I Can't Stop Loving You, Hound Dog and more. Enjoy an evening of Elvis favourites with two Elvis Tributes, starring Bruno Nesci, one of the 2022 top 5 finalists at Graceland, and featuring Eric Evangelista, a Collingwood Elvis festival grand champion, re-creating the 1970 opening show that Elvis performed at the Las Vegas Hilton. To mark the 50th Anniversary, Bruno will also be re-creating the full-scale concert of Aloha from Hawaii.

Presented by Dreamers Entertainment & Stage Academy Theatre Association, in support of Caledon Public Library, the event will run 7:30 – 10pm with seating outside (weather permitting) in the Fairgrounds parking lot. Tickets can be purchased at CPL's Albion Bolton branch or online at <https://caledon.library.on.ca/elvis/> Concessions will be sold at the event (cash only) and proceeds will go to CPL.

“Caledon Public Library is so appreciative of Dreamers Entertainment & Stage Academy Theatre Association to involve us in this fun community event”, said Colleen Lipp, CEO and Chief Librarian of Caledon Public Library. “It will be an enjoyable evening for all and it will help fund CPL's new Memory Station, which will launch at the Albion Bolton Branch in the summer of 2023.”

Through fundraising efforts, the Memory Station will be a do-it-yourself (DIY) station which will enable customers to digitize materials including converting old home movies, printed photographs, or slides into a digital format which can be shared online.

You Can't Help Falling in Love with this event, can you? Visit <https://caledon.library.on.ca/elvis> today for more details and to purchase tickets.
